Dealing with Pro Se Parties

Note: Worth one hour of ethics and one hour of general MCLE credit (2 hours total)

Handling legal matters with unrepresented parties holds a number of challenges beyond those encountered in cases or transactions with opposing counsel. Whether litigating or negotiating a transaction, dealing with a party without legal training can add uncertainty and complications which make our work more difficult.

Join Multnomah Circuit Court Judge Pro Tem Steven Todd and OSB Assistant General Counsels Linn Davis and Amber Bevacqua-Lynott for an informative discussion of ethical and tactical steps designed to make these matters safer and easier for all involved.

For more information: Call Todd Cleek, Cleek Law Office at
